Joseph Delmastro

3723 Taylor St NW, Washington, DC, 20011
Tel.: +1 715 590 2605
Email: delmastro.joseph@alumni.unc.edu

Summary of Qualifications

+ Detail-oriented policy researcher with proven experience in data analysis and public policy research
+ Possesses in-depth knowledge of contemporary policy debates within the Democratic Party
+ Campaign experience in local, state, and federal races helped me communicate policy with voters and understand their perspectives on the issues
+ Passionate for public policy and engagement with the greater community of experts that inform the political discourse

Work Experience

Policy Fellow January 2025 - Present
Progressive Policy Institute, Washington, DC

+ Produce research memos on policy areas such as education, workforce development, and AI.
+ Brainstorm and draft blog posts in PPI's Budget Breakdown series, focusing on contemporary budget-related issues
+ Clean, analyze, and visualize numerical and geo-spatial data in R and QGIS for Policy Directors' research

Research Tracking Associate March – November 2024
Democratic Party of Wisconsin, Madison, WI

+ Conducted opposition research on local, state, and federal Republican candidates for use in Press Assistant's pitches to local and state media outlets
+ Transcribed and distributed audio/visual recordings to hold candidates accountable for their statements
+ Fact-checked candidate statements with relevant articles and government reports

Campaign Representative January 2024
John Harabedian for Assembly 2024, Pasadena, CA

+ Collected election polling data from voters with Votebuilder to support internal campaign analytics
+ Engaged in policy discussions with potential voters, especially around local issues such as homelessness, affordable housing, public transportation, and pedestrian safety

Field Organizer September - November 2022
Democratic Party of Wisconsin, Eau Claire, WI

+ Organized volunteer canvassing efforts to Get Out The Vote in St. Croix, Pierce, and Dunn counties.
+ Coordinated closely with local county party leadership for canvassing operations and for campaign events
+ Knocked over 1,100 doors during Weekends of Action and made over 1,500 calls to volunteers, with 20,266 total doors knocked in the region

Technical Skills

+ Data Analysis Tools: Python, R, Stata, Tableau, QGIS, Command Line
+ Software: Microsoft Office Suite, Google Suite, Notion
+ Languages: C1 German, B1 Spanish, N5 Japanese

Education

Bachelor of Arts: Economics, Minor in German Studies 2018 - 2022
University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill, NC

+ DATA Science Credential in Economics (May 2022)
+ GPA: 3.5